DEED OF GIFT
SPECIAL COLLECTIONS & ARCHIVES

(Name of Donor)

Hereby donates and relinquishes to Georgia State University (a unit of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia) all property rights therein to: _________________________________

I also hereby assign all rights, title, and interest in copyrights and licenses currently possessed by me in the property, to the extent that I hold such. The collection includes: ________________________________

It is understood and agreed by and between the Donor and Georgia State University that the gift will be cared for in a manner that will, in the judgment of the staff of Special Collections & Archives, best provide for its physical preservation and at the same time make it most readily available to researchers.

The material will be available for research, display (including the Internet), educational and publication purposes, subject to standard archival practices and, to the extent authorized by state and federal law, without restriction (unless specifically designated herein).

Duplicate materials, extraneous materials, and materials judged to be inappropriate for the holdings of the University Library Special Collections & Archives will be disposed of by the staff of Special Collections & Archives in accordance with state and federal law, unless other arrangements are specified in an amendment to this document. Georgia State University however shall have no liability for damage to or destruction of the materials by fire, water, or other casualty.

In the event that the donating individual may from time to time hereafter give, donate and convey to the Special Collections & Archives of the University Library of Georgia State University for deposit in Special Collections & Archives, additional papers and other historical materials, title shall pass to the University upon their delivery and this instrument shall be applicable to all additional materials.
